UnitedFuture ready for 8 November election

UnitedFuture leader Peter Dunne says the 8 November General Election provides the opportunity for a new mandate and a fresh start.

“We are ready for this election and are looking forward to the campaign ahead.

“The Prime Minister says this will be an election about who you can trust – she is right.

“UnitedFuture, as the voice of the silent majority, will keep the next government on track and honest, thus allowing it to earn that trust,” said Mr Dunne.
